

European MSc Award

---

Objective:

The grant will be given to Works that clearly analyse, verify and demonstrate the awareness of the need of training qualification and certification of personnel and certification of companies, in welding and joining and its impact.

Conditions:

- Candidates must have an Engineering or other University degree
- Candidates can come from any region in the world
- University endorsement of the thesis
- Submission of the MSc thesis and paper for publication, to the ANB of the respective country
- The ANB will decide to submit the thesis for the award and will be responsible for the formal procedure

Criteria:

One or more of the bellow

- Identification and quantification of the impact of international qualifications/certifications in the industry
- Identification of lacks of skills; employability
- Analysis of impact in different regions/countries
- Analysis of links with standards
- Research approach
- Innovation

Grant:

Funding for presenting the paper in a Eurojoin Conference plus 500€

Submission documents:

- Copy of diploma of University degree
- 10 pages summary of the thesis in English for publication
- Full document of the thesis
- Letter of endorsement of supervisor
- Letter of endorsement of CEO of local ANB